Federal Pell Grant

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

The Federal Pell Grant program is a federally funded program which provides funds for educational expenses to adult students enrolled in financial aid approved post-secondary education career programs. Pell Grant awards are dependent on the following:

- Student's expected family contribution (EFC) as determined by the U.S. Department of Education using a standard formula to evaluate financial information (including income, assets, and family size)
- School's cost of attendance
- Student's enrollment status (full-time or part-time)
- Student's actual number of clock hours attended by the student

All adult and graduating high school students are encouraged to complete the FAFSA by applying online at www.fafsa.gov

MDTC's federal school code is 031984.

Application information is provided on the back of this form.

MDTC does not participate in any student loan programs.

Oklahoma Tuition Aid Grant (OTAG)

OTAG is administered by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education (OSRHE). The application for OTAG is the same application used for the Federal Pell Grant (FAFSA). To qualify you must be an Oklahoma resident attending an Oklahoma approved school. For best consideration, you should complete and submit the FAFSA to the federal student aid application system as soon as possible after OCT 1.

Next Step Tuition Waiver

The Next Step Tuition Waiver is designed to assist students who begin a program as a high school Senior and are returning to complete the hours needed to finish the program as an adult. Students are required to apply for financial aid at www.fafsa.ed.gov as part of the application process. Students can apply for this tuition waiver through the MDTC Career Advisor.

Oklahoma's Promise

This scholarship is administered by the Oklahoma State Regents of Higher Education (OSRHE). Students apply at their high school while enrolled in the 8th, 9th, or 10th grade. Student eligibility is determined by the OSRHE and is dependent upon enrollment in an approved MDTC program. Students are required to fill out a FAFSA for each year of attending and if necessary, will provide the required income verifications.

Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA)

BIA provides assistance to qualifying individuals on tribal rolls. Each tribe handles assistance through their tribal area offices. Grants may be available for tuition, supplies, and living expenses. For additional information contact the American Indian Education Training & Employment Center at 405-810-9202.

Workforce Innovation Opportunity Act (WIOA)

Oklahoma works provides financial aid, employment information, job search support, training, and educational programs to applicants that meet economic, employment, and geographical guidelines as determined by a WIOA counselor. Workforce Oklahoma offices can be reached at 1-405-713-1890.

Otha Grimes Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship is administered by the Oklahoma Department of Career and Technology Education Foundation and offered to students who might not qualify for other financial aid. Scholarships are to be used for expenses that directly relate to a student attending a technology center. Allowable expenses include: tuition, gasoline, books, uniforms, conference registration fees, school supplies, and childcare. Applications are accepted after the start of classes in the fall and spring.

Practical Nursing Assistance

Physician's Manpower is sponsored by the State of Oklahoma through PMTC. The program provides assistance to Oklahoma nursing students pursuing LPN, ADN, BSN, or MSN degrees and who are interested in practicing nursing in Oklahoma communities, with emphasis placed on rural communities. Approximately 200 nursing students receive scholarships each year. www.pmtc.ok.gov/nurses

Department of Rehabilitative Services (DRS VOC REHAB)

Vocational Rehabilitation assists individuals who have barriers to employment. In some cases DRS pays tuition, fees, books, and supply costs. Eligibility, application, and funding are determined by the Oklahoma Department of Human Services. Contact your local Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor for more information or go to the web at <http://www.okrehab.org>

Veteran's Administration Educational Assistance/VA Vocational Rehabilitation

VA assistance is available for veterans, or in some cases family members, who meet eligibility requirements and attend limited VA approved programs at MDTC. Benefits information, a list of approved training options, along with application procedures can be found at <https://benefits.va.gov/gibill/> Contact the Veteran's Administration at 1-844-698-2311 or the financial aid officer for more information.
